PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

Don't check the price tag! Everyone knows the rule, don't look a gift horse in the mouth. We're taught at a young age never to question the value of the cost of gift freely given. And that moral is a wise one. What's missing however is the recognition of a gift in the first place. So much in this world we take for granted, as our due, or something we've earned. But Jesus made it clear time and again that everything we have comes as a gift from God, from our first breath to our final sigh. The span of our life, it's contents, our abilities, our possessions all are given from a loving Father. And not only are we abundantly gifted, we are gifts ourselves. Jesus says "they are Your gift to me." Strange to think that even in the depth of our muddiest mire, Jesus considers us a precious gift from His Father. Perhaps that is where that original moral, 'don't look a gift horse in the mouth' comes from. If Jesus did, there surely would be days He'd be standing in the gift exchange line.

Congratulations to Mandi Meier and Ryan Fettig who were married Friday, May 6. May God richly bless their marriage. May they feel the support and encouragement of the Corpus Christi community.

Happy Mother's Day

A Mother's Prayer

Jesus teach me how to be proud of simplicity;

Sweep the floors, wash the clothes,
gather for each vase a rose.

Iron and mend a tiny frock keeping one eye on the clock.

Always having time kept free
for childish questions asked of me.

Grant me wisdom Mary had when she taught her little lad.

COMING UP IN THE AREA

REDISCOVER OUR FAITH SERIES

This Sunday, May 8, our Rediscovering Our Faith Topic will be "Why do I need the Church?: The Mystery of the Catholic Church. Some people say, "I'm spiritual, but not religious" or "I like Jesus, but don't need a Church." Yet, one can't fully love the King and reject his Kingdom. Jesus didn't save us as isolated individuals. He calls us to enter communion with the Church.

Next Sunday, May 15, our topic will cover "Mary and the Saints: Our Spiritual Mother and the Communion of Saints.

Aloha my friends!!! Come and join us for our "End-of-the-Year
Faith Formation Celebration
Luau," Wednesday, May 25 from 5:30-7:30 pm at Corpus Christi.
There will be supper, games, a photo booth, and so much more.
Throw on your hula skirts or Hawaiian shirts and help us celebrate another wonderful year.

The Holy Father Speaks. . . "Let us never forget: we cannot stand by as onlookers when we see so many people worn out by hunger, violence and injustice. To ignore man's suffering means to ignore God," says the Pope who recalls how, in the parable, the Levite and the priest walk by the man who had been attacked by thieves and lay moribund on the side of the road. "The inaction of both men of the temple cult was contrary to the Law of the Lord. The Law obliges us to stop and help anyone in distress. And here, the parable offers us a lesson: that it's not a given, that those who frequent the house of God and are aware of His mercy know how to love the other. The Samaritan, a schismatic Jew, was despised in Jesus' day as 'an outsider, a pagan and impure,' and he too had things to do - but when he saw the wounded man, he did not pass by as the other two men did. He stopped and 'had compassion for him'. Compassion is an essential characteristic of God's mercy and in the gestures and actions of the Good Samaritan, we recognize the action of God's mercy throughout salvation history. It is the same compassion with which God encounters each of us. He does not ignore us. He recognizes our pain, He knows when we need help and consolation. He comes close and never abandons us." The Pope finished with saying, "If we have a compassionate heart, like Jesus, we can be close to anyone who is in need of help."

Welcome! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today and we hope you will return often. If you do not belong to a parish, please consider choosing Corpus Christi as your church home. You may call the parish office at 255-4600 to register.

59th Annual

God's Share Appeal

GOAL: 100% participation

(2,184 Corpus Christi Households)

13% (gifts from 284 households)

The Annual God's Share Appeal is underway. Each and every gift is important. If you have not yet made your gift, we ask that you make your commitment today in order to provide the resources needed to continue the vital diocesan programs and ministries that benefit every parish and every parishioner. No gift is too small and every gift is sincerely appreciated.

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE

Corpus Christi is in need of volunteers to help out with some duties around the church. Please call the office at 255-4600 if you are interested in giving of your time to serve Corpus Christi.

Sacristy Linen Care: A volunteer to wash and care for the Sacristy linens once a week on a rotating schedule during the months of May and September. The linens can be taken home.

Media and Technology Assistance: Assist with camera operation during weekend liturgies. This help is especially needed at our 4:00 p.m. mass. The system is easy to operate. Training is provided.

"A day will come when we will stand before God and give an accounting of our lives and he will say to us, 'What did you do with all that I gave you?'"

Marriage Moments: "That they may be one, as we are one." (John 17:22) Although you and your beloved are united in spirit there still may be many things you disagree on. The crucial thing is not that you are 100% alike, but that you find ways to manage your differences. What's a difference that you've compromised on. What have you agreed to do your spouse's way?

Parenting Pointers: What's a father to do on Mother's Day? It's not your job to get a gift for your wife but rather to coach your son or daughter (if need be) in deciding how they can best honor their mother. Be there, but not the primary giver.

Church Cookbook: There has been interest in publishing a Corpus Christi Cookbook. If you would be interested in being a part of this project by serving on a committee, submitting a recipe, or purchasing a book, please call the office at 255-4600. We would love to hear your thoughts. All proceeds will benefit the food pantry.

Formed - Best Catholic Content. All In One Place.
