PARISH BULLETIN DEADLINE: Articles must be received by noon on Wednesdays (typed format).

PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

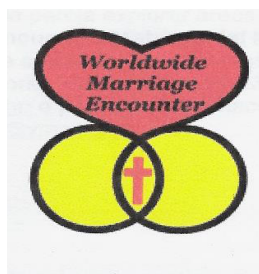

Live Simply, So That Others May Simply Live. The Parable of Lazarus and the rich man speaks to our hearts. In some ways, we may be able to identify with either of the individuals. In any event, we are asked to place ourselves into the scene and to ask some difficult questions if we identify ourselves with the rich man. How do we share the gifts and richness that we have? Are we blind to the needs of those who (although are not at our feet) are in front of our eyes, at our door, or on the street where we live? If we see ourselves as the poor man, do we see a hope for our resurrection into new life through and during our suffering? We all have a part to play in the drama of the spiritual journey, and Jesus calls us to the same happy ending into the Kingdom. How well do we respond to those needy at our door?

Looking at life properly. It's easy to ignore the harshness of a righteous path when our eyes are closed in prayer or staring into the face of God. It is only when we look down, focusing on ourselves, that the view seems dismal. Where

The Saint Mary's Central High School Homecoming Breakfast will be Sunday, September 25th from 9am-1pm in the school cafeteria. Proceeds will benefit the SMCHS Music Department. Free will offering. Please come enjoy the food and fellowship.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

Make plans for a fall get-away with the one you love before your calendar fills up!! A Marriage Encounter Weekend is a private weekend away from life's distractions that allows a husband and wife to focus on each other. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are November 11-13, 2016 in East Grand Forks, MN and November 11-13, 2016 in Medora, ND. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information visit our website at ndwwme.org or contact Rob & Angie at Applications@ndwwme.org or 701-347-1998.

Vocation Views: Who do you identify with - the rich man or Lazarus? Choose to notice others and to reach out to those in need. Support those who serve the poor. (Luke 16:19-31)

Stewardship Thoughts: Stewardship is an important concept for our spiritual growth as Catholics. It is a way of thanking God for all of the Lord's blessings by returning to God a portion of the time, talent and treasure we have received.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS FOR SEPTEMBER

PASTA SAUCE AND CANNED VEGETABLES

The Holy Father Speaks... "Humanity should feel ashamed it can wage war, kill the innocent, bomb cities and prevent food and medicine from reaching survivors." Violence and division are the work of the devil who "wants to kill everyone," and that is why people need to come together to pray for peace, united in the conviction that "God is a God of peace," he said. "There is no god of war," he said. "If we shut our ear to the cry of these people who suffer being bombed, who suffer exploitation by arms traffickers, it could be that when it's our turn no one will respond to us." Perhaps 'we don't see' war personally or 'we get frightened' by an act of terrorism, he said. But none of that can compare to what is happening in some parts of the world, "where day and night, the bombs fall and fall...killing children, the elderly, men and women." War in fact, really isn't that far away at all, he added. "War touches everyone" because "war begins in the heart." The Pope prayed that God would "give us peace in our heart, eliminate every urge for avarice, greediness, conflict." He prayed that people's hearts would be the hearts of men and women of peace and that they would be able to see beyond religious differences "because we are all children of God." While he and other leaders were praying in Assisi, he asked that everyone pray and "feel shame. Shame for this: that human beings, our brothers and sisters, are capable of doing this," of killing and wounding others.

Welcome! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today and we hope you will return often. If you do not belong to a parish, please consider choosing Corpus Christi as your church home. You may call the parish office at 255-4600 to register.

7 SECRETS OF CONFESSION

BY VINNEY FLYNN

"I want to go to Communion, so I have to go to confession." Sound familiar? To many Catholics, confession is just a means to an end: cleaning us up from sin so we can receive Communion. But, as Pope Francis tells us, confession is much more than "going to the dry cleaner." It's "an encounter with Jesus, who waits for us as we are." In 7 Secrets of Confession, best-selling author Vinny Flynn explores the "hidden" truths of this encounter with Jesus, presenting what to many will be a whole new way of going to confession, and inviting you to begin an exciting personal journey to healing and holiness. If you do not yet look forward to confession in the same way you look forward to communion, read on. It will change your life.

This Book and others can be found on the book rack downstairs in the lower gathering space. A $4.00 donation is suggested for each Book to help us continue this program.

Marriage Moments: A fiance was thrilled to have finally found Ms. Right. Not long after the wedding, he was disillusioned to discover that her first name was "Always." Of course you can reverse the genders. Negotiating differences and letting go of my way is the art of marriage.

Parenting Pointers: September 26 is "Eat Dinner Together Day." How many days a week should your family eat together? Experts say try for at least 4 or 5.....Susan Vogt at www.Susanvogt.net.

2016 THIRST - A EUCHARISTIC CONFERENCE. Who do you know that is thirsting? Join us October 28-30, 2016 at the Bismarck event center for THIRST 2016. This exciting and free event has something for all ages and backgrounds. Come and gather with others from around the diocese and region to rediscover the depths of God's love in this Jubilee Year of Mercy. Register online at www.bismarckdiocese.com/thirst2016.

SAVE THE DATE - EUCHARISTIC ADORATION will be taking place throughout the THIRST Conference. The Church of Corpus Christi's assigned time slot for Eucharistic Adoration is Saturday, October 29 from 6 a.m. - 9 a.m. No need to sign up, just come and join your fellow parishioners.

The Benedictine Sisters of Annunciation Monastery, Bismarck, invite single Catholic women to an "Ever Wonder?" weekend retreat on October 1-2 at Annunciation Monastery. Learn about the rich life of prayer, community and service of the sisters. No cost. Pre-register by calling Sister Hannah at 425-9734 or: hvanorny@gmail.com

PART-TIME YOUTH COORDINATOR

We are excited to welcome Rachel Krueger to the staff at Corpus Christi. Rachel will be helping us part-time with our middle school and high school youth programming. Rachel is a student at the University of Mary, studying Communications and Catholic Studies. She will be working with Tracy Kraft and our Youth Ministry Core Teams to plan and execute our programming this year. Rachel can be reached at 255-4600 or at Rachel.Krueger@corpuschristibismarck.com.

Remember in Prayer

The parish has a list of parishioners that wish to be prayed for during our weekend liturgies. Their names are posted on the wall in the upper gathering space of the church and also read by the deacons at the weekend masses. The names will remain on the prayer list for 30 days unless you call before that time to have them removed. If you want your name to remain on the list after 30 days have passed, please contact the parish office to have your name or the name of your loved one added again. Thank you.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Not just another day

“Casual Fridays” began in the 1990s. Employers were trying to improve office morale without spending any money, so workers were permitted to wear jeans, T-shirts, and flip-flops to work. A look at the Communion procession in most contemporary churches this morning would indicate the idea has spread even to Sunday Mass. If formality in church attire has disappeared, what about honoring the day of the Lord by remembering, “Keep holy the Sabbath Day”? Find a way to make Sunday different from other days of the week in your home.

TODAY’S READINGS: Amos 6:1a, 4-7; 1 Timothy 6:11-16; Luke 16:19-31 (138). “But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.”

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

MEMORIAL OF COSMAS AND DAMIAN, MARTYRS
For the public good

Cosmas and Damian were brother physicians in the early church, famous for never accepting payment for their work as a way to witness to their deep Christian faith. While most of us need to earn an income off our professional skills, we also can let these saintly brother doctors inspire us to offer our skills in some volunteer or pro bono (for the public good) work. Look for a way to match your skills to society’s needs and volunteer somewhere today.

TODAY’S READINGS: Job 1:6-22; Luke 9:46-50 (455). “Whoever is not against you is for you.”

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27 MEMORIAL OF VINCENT DE PAUL, PRIEST

Master of your soul

Life in Europe around 1600 was filled with uncertainty and danger. Vincent de Paul, a priest living comfortably in France, was enslaved after being abducted by pirates during a sea voyage. He was bought and sold several times in Muslim countries and ended up with a master who had converted to Islam to obtain his own freedom from slavery. Vincent’s example of steadfastness convinced the master to return to the Catholic faith, and they fled back to France and freedom. Every situation in life, no matter how dire, offers an opportunity to witness to the power of faith.

TODAY’S READINGS: Job 3:1-3, 11-17, 20-23; Luke 9:51-56 (456). “The disciples . . . asked, ‘Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?’ Jesus turned and rebuked them.”

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28 MEMORIAL OF WENCESLAUS, MARTYR

When the going gets tough

“Good King Wenceslaus” is a Christmas carol about a Czech king, who was later martyred and sainted, but who first braved a long journey in a snowstorm, giving alms to the poor along the way. The king’s servant struggled to continue in the harsh weather, but managed to do so by following Wenceslaus’ footprints in the snow. Christ, the saints, and myriad Christians before you have already beaten the path you’ve been called by your Baptism to take. Following their lead will help you through the trying conditions along it.

TODAY’S READINGS: Job 9:1-12, 14-16; Luke 9:57-62 (457). “No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.”

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

FEAST OF MICHAEL, GABRIEL, AND RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS
I hear the rush of angels’ wings

Go on: Try to argue that you don’t miss the angels. When we were kids, angels were dear divine lifeguards to whom we were committed by God’s love, in the words of a popular prayer. But somewhere between surrendering Santa and the Tooth Fairy, many of us lost a sense of a celestial companion, a divine messenger, a fighting force for good at our side “to light and guard, to rule and guide” us along life’s journey. While faith in winged beings is optional, the conviction that we’re divinely accompanied, advised, and rescued is not. Jesus believes in angels. He should know!

TODAY’S READINGS: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 or Revelation 12:7-12a; John 1:47-51 (647). “You will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

MEMORIAL OF JEROME, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
A word so deep

“Ignorance of the scriptures is ignorance of Christ.” In the fourth century, Jerome was a priest who peculiarly never celebrated the Mass. Instead, he dedicated his life to creating a new translation of the Bible. To probe the mysteries of the Old Testament, he studied Hebrew with rabbis in the Holy Land—a collaboration no Christian had considered for centuries. Aided by lay women like Saint Paula who assisted his work and financially supported him, Jerome labored in a cave in Bethlehem until his death. Catch the spark of Jerome’s passion. Read the Bible regularly.

TODAY’S READINGS: Job 38:1, 12-21; 40:3-5; Luke 10:13-16 (459). “Have you entered into the source of the sea, or walked about in the depths of the abyss?”

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1

MEMORIAL OF THÉRÈSE OF THE CHILD JESUS, VIRGIN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
Less is more

Thérèse is one of the most beloved of saints because she found “a little way” to sanctity and made it accessible to all. A sickly child and frail adult who died in 1897 at the tender age of 24, Thérèse nonetheless left her mark on the spiritual life by discovering the strength in being weak. As she wrote: “I will seek out a means of getting to Heaven by a little way—very short and very straight, a little way that is wholly new. . . . To get there I need not grow; on the contrary, I must remain little, I must become still less.” What less can you do?

TODAY’S READINGS: Job 42:1-3, 5-6, 12-17; Luke 10:17-24 (460). “Many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it.”
