PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

From Mouthing to Ministry. We can find it terribly easy in our faith to “go through the motions.” By the time Jesus arrived on the scene in first-century Palestine, the same thing had happened to the Pharisees and Sadducees. Instead of walking the walk, they were too busy debating and “talking the talk”. How much easier it was to agree spiritual concepts, dogma and tradition details, than to do the hard work of faith. And keeping themselves distracted wasn’t enough, they interfered with others’ active ministry too. This time, the question attempted to divert Jesus’ true teaching. Faced with the power, the spiritual authority of the Son of God, this pack of self appointed tradition keepers wanted to argue the specifics of who would be whose spouse, than face the harder truth of the resurrection they refused to believe in. Too often, we today find ourselves dealing with arcane questions that divert us from ministry. We get caught up in all consuming debates over the tiniest details, and ignore the hungry, the lost, the sick. If we could just shake off this urge to argue and lose ourselves instead in the passion of faith, we could start ministering instead of mouthing. When we begin to do, not debate, we untie God’s hands and He can work the miracles we’ve been waiting for. Where are you today: ministering or mouthing?

Bismarck Catholic Daughters will meet on Tuesday, November 15 (note date change) at 7:00 p.m. at Cathedral. Our speaker will be from the Laboure’ Society. Come see our display of cards and stationary for our fundraiser. Check our website also to order these products from cdabismarck.org. Guests are welcome. Call Delores for more information at 221-2818.

Prepare, Care, Share & Prayer Women’s Group

All women are invited to attend the Prepare, Care, Share and Prayer women’s group on Thursday, November 10, 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Community Room. We will be viewing “The Mystery of God” from Bishop Robert Barron’s Catholicism series. At times we all wonder about the existence of God and are challenged by the majesty and mystery of God. Through the teachings of Bishop Barron, come and explore your faith with other women of faith. For questions, call Cindy at 255-4600.

MAKING ADVENT WREATHS FOR YOUR HOME

You are invited to join us on Saturday, November 19 from 10:00-11:00 a.m. in the Community Room to make an Advent Wreath and prayer to be used as we enter into this holy season of Advent. The traditional circular Advent wreath reminds us that God, like the circle, has no beginning and no end.

The wreath symbolizes our everlasting relationship with God, the source of continuous new life and the four candles signify Hope, Peace, Joy and Love.

This is open to all adults and children over the age of 3. Please sign up along with your payment in the parish office for your wreath(s) by November 7. Samples of the wreaths will be on display. Cost for adult is $15, child is $1.25. If you are unable to be with us on November 19, you are welcome to order your wreath(s) to make at home. The deadline to order is November 7. Please call Mary Janusz or Cindy Anderst at 255-4600 if you have any questions.

November Spanish Mass

Sunday, November 20th

1:00 p.m.

The Holy Father Speaks... The Pope offered a new list of Beatitudes at a Catholic Mass in Malmo, Sweden. At the Mass, which took place at the conclusion of his ecumenical trip to the country, Pope Francis highlighted the lives of the Swedish saints Elizabeth Hasselblad and Bridget of Vadstena. The best description of the saints, their 'identity card', is found in the Beatitudes from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which begins, "Blessed are the poor in spirit."

New situations require new energy and a new commitment and I have offered a new list of Beatitudes for modern Christians:

Blessed are those who remain faithful while enduring evils inflicted on them by others and forgive them from their heart.

Blessed are those who look into the eyes of the abandoned and marginalized and show them their closeness.

Blessed are those who see God in every person and strive to make others also discover them.

Blessed are those who protect and care for our common house.

Blessed are those who renounce their own comfort in order to help others.

Blessed are those who pray and work for full communion between Christians.

Welcome! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today and we hope you will return often. If you do not belong to a parish, please consider choosing Corpus Christi as your church home. You may call the parish office at 255-4600 to register.

Make a Difference Day 2016

With your generous donations we prepared 396 care packages for the local men and women in law enforcement in our community.

Thank you for making a difference!

Marriage Moments: The election is at hand. The USA is divided and tired. Is it possible to love and respect those with different political opinions? Consider how you resolve serious differences of opinion with your spouse. What does it mean to 'love your enemy' when it feels like fellow citizens are the enemy? Learn from your marriage. We must go on living together.

Parenting Pointers: It's nice, periodically, to remember family members who have died. This need not be a sad or gruesome task but rather a way to celebrate the goodness and lessons learned from relatives who have gone before us. Familiarize your children with their deceased relatives by creating a litany of their names and good qualities....

November: A Month of Remembrance

During the month of November, we are called in a special way to remember to pray for "our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection."

We have placed "A Book of Eternal Light" at the entrance of the church in which we list all members of Corpus Christi who have gone before us since our beginning on August 1, 1965. There is also another book at the entrance of the church in which you can write the names of your beloved family and friends who have died and we will remember them in prayer this month.
