PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

From the Pastor's Desk:

My warmly felt affection to you for your remembrances this Christmas season. Your cards and gifts mean a great deal to me and I thank you for them. As I open each card and gift and picture you, I am thankful that you are part of our parish family.

The Magi and their gifts. According to legend, the wise men were considered royal personages. Their names are traditionally given as Melchior, Gaspar and Balthazar. Melchior was supposedly an old man with long hair and a white beard. His gift of gold is said to be a testimony to the royalty of Christ. Gaspar is usually pictured as young and beardless. Tradition says his gift of incense was a token of Christ's divine nature. Balthazar is pictured as black of complexion with a full beard. The myrrh he held is said to have prefigured the death of Christ.

Baptism of the Lord. John is baptizing when Jesus draws near. Perhaps Jesus comes to sanctify His mortal baptizer, certainly our Lord comes to bury sinful humanity in the purifying waters of His Baptism. He comes to sanctify the Jordan for our sake and in readiness for us. He who is spirit and flesh comes to begin a new creation through the Spirit and water.

Pure Waters. The Lord was baptized not to be cleansed Himself, but to cleanse the waters, so that these waters, cleansed by the flesh of Christ which knew no sin, might have the power of baptism. (St. Ambrose)

Rachel Krueger, our Youth Coordinator, is resigning from her part-time position here at Corpus Christi for family reasons. She worked with our teens in middle school and high school youth ministry and coordinated our middle school faith formation program. We appreciated her work at the parish and wish her the best moving forward.

We have begun a formal search for a new youth minister and hope to have results to share in the future. Until then, middle school programming schedules will be adjusted.

Stewardship Thoughts: As we begin this new year, let us take time to plan and make stewardship of time and talent a part of our lifestyle and stewardship of treasure a part of our budget.

Vocation Views: God is not made manifest in magnificence, but in the small and the ordinary. Use your talents to manifest God's ever faithful love for His people. (Is. 60:1-6)

The Holy Father Speaks... The year opens in the name of the Mother. The Mother of God. There is no longer God without man; the flesh Jesus took from His Mother is our own, now and for all eternity. The great miracle of Christmas is that man is no longer alone; no more an orphan but forever a child. This is the novelty presented to us by the liturgy at the beginning of the new year. Knowing that we are children of God helps us to realize that humanity is precious and sacred to the Lord. Henceforth, to serve human life is to serve God. The Bible says of Mary only that she kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. She remained silent in the face of the great miracles and wonders of Christmas. In this, Mary follows in the footsteps of her Son, the Eternal Word of God, Who chose to become an infant, Who did not speak. This silence tells us that, if we would 'keep' ourselves, we need silence. As we look on the crib in silence, we let Jesus speak to our heart...To set aside a moment of silence each day to be with God is to keep our soul. Mary pondered both the joys and sorrows of life, dwelling on them with God in her heart. She pondered them by always turning them over to God. When we do that, God, Who keeps us in His heart, then comes to dwell in our lives. At the beginning of the new year, we too, as Christians on our pilgrim way, feel the need to set out anew from the centre, to leave behind the burdens of the past and to start over with the things that really matter. The point of departure is the Mother of God. Devotion to Mary is not spiritual etiquette, it is a requirement of the Christian life. If our faith is not to be reduced merely to an idea or a doctrine, all of us need a mother's heart. "May the Mother, God's finest human creation, guard and keep this year, and bring the peace of her Son to our hearts and to the world."

Welcome! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today and we hope you will return often. If you do not belong to a parish, please consider choosing Corpus Christi as your church home. You may call the parish office at 255-4600 to register.

Perfectly Yourself
Discovering God's Dream For You
by Matthew Kelly

Do you ever get the feeling that you are not enough? Not smart enough, not loved enough, not rich enough, not good enough? We all feel this from time to time - even the rich, the famous, the beautiful, and the geniuses in this world. These feelings are usually born from comparing ourselves with others, but God doesn't compare you to anybody else. Comparisons are worthless in a world of individuals. God simply wants to help you become the person he created you to be - perfectly yourself. You are enough!

SPANISH MASS

The January Spanish mass at Corpus Christi will be held on January 21st at 1:00 p.m. As always, all are welcome. If you know of anyone who would care to celebrate mass in Spanish please feel free to invite them.

We thank you for your great awareness and kindness in parking and not intruding on our neighbors' property. This is the busy season and we know with the cold weather the temptations are strong to park where we shouldn't. You've been great about respecting our neighbors and we thank you for that.

St. Mary's High School Carnival

This year's annual carnival event to support Catholic Education in the Bismarck area is February 2-4. We need volunteers to help with Corpus Christi's meals and midway games. Please stop by the sign-up table downstairs after mass and see where you might be able to help. Thank You.

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Bless this threshold

Think of everything that goes on in your home. Whether you live in a studio or on an estate, home is where the action is. Meals eaten, laundry folded, conversations shared, faults confessed, injuries forgiven, promises made, dreams spoken out loud, victories celebrated, defeats laid to rest, births welcomed, wanderers embraced, sickness tended, disappointments endured, deaths grieved—these are the many elements by which the vitality of our homes is measured. Doesn't a space this important deserve a New Year's blessing? Celebrate a ritual for these rooms where love puts down its roots.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12 (20). "Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance."

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Be prepared

Moments of great insight and personal revelation, such as the experience Jesus had when he emerged from the waters after John baptized him, are a gift from God. But the ground is ours to prepare. It is doubtful that Jesus arrived at this moment of his life, which marked the beginning of his public ministry, without having spent a good deal of time in prayer and quiet reflection. We can do the same. Working with the limitations of time and the circumstances of your life, create a time and space every day for prayer and quiet contemplation or meditation. Many people make it the first thing in their day. That way it doesn't get lost. Prepare the ground, so that when the Spirit "descends like a dove" with a revelation for you, it will find a solid place to perch.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7 or 55:1-11; Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38 or 1 John 5:1-9; Mark 1:7-11 (21). "One mightier than I is coming after me."

FIRST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

What possessed you?

It's worthy to note that the "unclean spirits" in the gospel stories speak in the plural: "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us?" Why is that? The "possessed" person is one who has lost his center, whose soul is divided, split and without grounding or foundation in the "Holy One of God." He is dominated by one voice, then by another. No wonder he speaks in the plural. Today, we might take a moment to ask ourselves, What is my center? From where do my thoughts and actions flow? Then make any necessary adjustments.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 1:9-20 or 1:1-8; Mark 1:21-28 or 1:14-20 (306 or 305). "The man with the unclean spirit cried out, 'I know who you are, the Holy One of God!'"

Healer, heal thyself

You may have heard the expression "wounded healer." It suggests that you don't have to be perfectly healthy to help others. But you have to be careful not to bring your unresolved problems into helping relationships with others, or you could do a lot of damage. Scripture makes it clear that taking care of your personal spiritual health should come first. Peter's mother-in-law took to her bed when she was ill and only served the apostles after Jesus healed her. You can give of yourself only if you have something to give. Think about some ways you can improve your spiritual health—by doing some spiritual reading, praying more, seeking the sacrament of Reconciliation, or going on a retreat.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 3:1-10, 19-20; Mark 1:29-39 (307).

"Jesus took her by the hand and lifted her up. The fever left her, and she began to serve them."

Take in the outcast

In the gospel era, lepers were considered rejects of society. According to the law of Moses, they had to announce their presence to everybody within earshot so they could be avoided. Yet, with a simple choice, a word, and a gesture, Jesus restored a leper to health so he could be around others without being afraid. How many people will we encounter today who, by their appearance or their language, will announce their rejection by society? Part of doing God's will is choosing to welcome the stranger and include those whom society rejects into our lives.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 4:1-11; Mark 1:40-45 (308). "A leper knelt before Jesus and said to him, 'If you choose, you can make me clean.'"

Friday, Jan 12, 2018

Stick with the basics

The Gospel of Mark is the story of Jesus told in simple language for simple folk, without big words or extra commentary. But even without embellishment, extraordinary things happen—friendship so phenomenal that a paralytic makes an unlikely grand entrance followed by a more dramatic exit. It's plain to see Jesus works wonders, not just forgiving unforgivable sins but proving his right to do so by giving the paralyzed power to walk. If we're paralyzed today, it's because we've made life more muddled than Mark, wrapped up in rationalizations and fancy phrases when all we really need is "Jesus saves."

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 8:4-7; Mark 2:1-12 (309). "They removed the roof above Jesus, and let down the mat on which the paralytic lay."

MEMORIAL OF HILARY, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Make the ask

Saint Hilary of Poitiers (d. 368), a midlife convert, felt great passion for the Christian concept of God—the Trinity—and fought hard against the Arians, who denied the divinity of Christ. For Hilary, Jesus wasn't simply a holy person; Jesus was the Christ, the second person of the Trinity. Therefore, Hilary argued, it is through Jesus that we find our way to God's grace: "We have been promised, and he who made the promise is trustworthy: 'Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.'" No matter what you've done or failed to do, your sins will be forgiven, if you just ask.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 9:1-4, 17-19; 10:1a; Mark 2:13-17 (310). "All the crowd came to him and he taught them."
