PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

More than a flag. "A thoughtful mind, when it sees a Nation's flag, sees not the flag only, but the Nation itself; and whatever may be its symbols, its insignia, he reads chiefly in the flag the Government, the principles, the truths, the history which belongs to the Nation it sets forth."

(Henry Ward Beecher)

The Flag of the Free

*Hurrah for the flag of the free!
 May it wave as our standard forever.
 The gem of the land and the sea.
 The banner of the right.
 Let despots remember the day when our fathers with might endeavor proclaimed as they marched to the fray that by their might and by their right it waves forever.*

His heart burns with pity. What is a charitable heart? It is the heart of Him who burns with pity for all creation... He looks at the creatures and His eyes are filled with tears. His heart is filled with deep compassion and limitless patience. That most sacred heart overflows with tenderness and cannot bear to see or hear any evil or the least grief endured by the least of creatures in his creation. (St. Isaak of Syria)

Retired Nurses luncheon, 11:30 on Wednesday, June 13 at Bismarck Elks club.

Stewardship Thoughts: Those who practice stewardship recognize God as the origin of life, the giver of freedom, the source of all that they have and all that they are.

Vocation Views: God bestows abundant grace upon us with the expectation that we will share this grace with others in thanksgiving, so they too can rejoice in God's love. (2 Corinthians 4:15)

PROTECTING OUR CHILDREN. The Diocese of Bismarck is firmly committed to the health and protection of our children, young people and vulnerable adults. With the hope of healing the pain and suffering from sexual abuse in the Catholic Church, we encourage anyone who has suffered from this abuse to please come forward and let us know. To report allegations of sexual abuse, please contact: Dale Eberle, Chancellor, Diocese of Bismarck, PO Box 1575, Bismarck, ND 58502-1575 or call 701-223-1347. The complaint form and policies can be found on the diocesan website at www.bismarckdiocese.com.

Marriage Moments: "Love does not consist in gazing at each other but in looking outward together in the same direction." (Antoine De Sain-Exupery) The little prince knew something of marriage. Look out over your life and see beyond the crabgrass. What is your most cherished common goal?

Parenting Pointers: "For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother. (Mk 3:35) Family matters, but perhaps our definition of "family" is too small. Try to identify someone outside of your immediate family who did the will of God this past week. Tell them you notice. (Susan Vogt....www.SusanVogt.net)

The Holy Father Speaks... Confirmation is an "undeserved gift" to be welcomed with gratitude, safeguarded with care and lived with docility allowing oneself to be shaped and molded by the Spirit in order to 'reflect' the light of Christ in today's world. Focusing on the gift imparted to us when we received the Sacrament, that just as Jesus received the outpouring of the Spirit at his baptism in order to carry out his mission, the Church prays that we too may receive the gifts and the fruits of the Spirit that allow us to spread its message. Those who receive Confirmation take upon themselves the responsibility of 'renewing the promises already made by parents and godparents during Baptism. The gift of the Spirit is communicated through the laying on of hands and anointing with sacred chrism. On the one hand, the Spirit distributes his gifts of "wisdom, intellect, counsel, strength, piety, and holy fear", while on the other he is "the creator of unity". Thus, the Spirit gives all these riches that are different but in the same way those riches bring harmony and unity to the people of God and to the world. Christians, who receive an "indelible spiritual mark" through Confirmation, are called to reflect the light of Jesus in the world and to spread amongst men his message of salvation. Sealed with the Holy Spirit, we are configured more closely to Christ and strengthened to bear witness to him in our world. May each of us grow in gratitude for the gift received at our Confirmation and open our hearts ever more fully to the creativity of the Spirit who makes all things new.

Welcome! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today and we hope you will return often. If you do not belong to a parish, please consider choosing Corpus Christi as your church home. You may call the parish office at 255-4600 to register.

TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Why we hide

A psychologist explained something fascinating about shame: No one can put it inside us without our consent. Shame doesn't enter from the outside but responds from the inside. Those seeking to embarrass us are frustrated if we refuse their attempt to impart shame with the slap of a hand or a word. If we accept shame, it's because deep down we're already carrying it. So Adam, guilty of disloyalty to God, is shamed by his newfound nakedness. Yet Jesus, insulted, beaten, stripped, and humiliated, remains clothed in honor at the cross. Got shame? We've got a sacrament for that.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15; 2 Corinthians 4:13—5:1; Mark 3:20-35 (89). "I heard you in the garden, but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself."

MEMORIAL OF BARNABAS, APOSTLE

A stand-up guy

Do you have trouble standing up to peer pressure? Learn from Saint Barnabas. Though he wasn't one of the original apostles, he stood up to Peter and James and others in defense of Paul, who had once persecuted Christians but then wanted to be one. And when even Peter was reluctant to fraternize with converted gentiles, Barnabas held that Jesus' message was meant for everyone. He was a man whose word was good, not only to be relied on but—because he was a great preacher—to be inspired by. Next time you're feeling peer pressure, pray for the help of Barnabas.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12 (580; Gospel 359). "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy."

Tuesday, Jun 12, 2018

You are the salt of the earth

Salt is such an ordinary, inexpensive, and easily found substance in most cases nowadays that you can fail to fully grasp the profound meaning of Jesus' famous metaphor. Consider these facts. Once known as "white gold," salt is necessary for human life. It preserves, purifies, and enhances the flavor of food. It made civilization possible. Wars have been waged over supplies of salt; it has been taxed, hoarded, traded, and used as currency; and it helped galvanize Mohandas Gandhi's nonviolent movement for India's independence from Britain. When Jesus compares his disciples to salt of the earth, he is really saying: "Your life and presence matter. In fact, you are more than valuable—you are essential." Be alert for opportunities to be salt for the world today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:7-16; Matthew 5:13-16 (360). "If salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned?"

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY OF PADUA, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Give what you receive

Saint Francis of Assisi had a healthy skepticism about academic pursuits. In the Middle Ages the accolades a noted scholar might enjoy could leave gospel poverty in the dust. When Anthony of Padua asked to join Francis' new "Order of Penance," however, Francis saw that Anthony was able to combine brilliance and oratorical power with fidelity to the gospel and simplicity. Francis even welcomed Anthony to bring his precious books with him—they were the tools of his trade—and entrusted to his care the training of brothers seeking to become priests. You may find yourself juggling values that seem at odds with each other, like being a bread-earner and a caring mom or dad. Saint Anthony knew that the gifts of God—even those most esteemed like intelligence, power, and wealth—are still gifts as long as they're balanced with humility.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:20-39; Matthew 5:17-19 (361). "Let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant."

Carry on the flag

The American flag was adopted on this day in 1777, and ever since it has been a cherished symbol of everything this country holds dear. As President Calvin Coolidge observed, "It represents our peace and security, our civil and political liberty, our freedom of religious worship, our family, our friends, our home." But, he noted, it is equally a symbol of responsibility. As a nation the United States has its share of problems, disagreements, and failures. Today is a good day to reflect on the sacrifices your ancestors made and consider how you might carry on their work so that your grandchildren may live in the freedom the Stars and Stripes proclaim.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:41-46; Matthew 5:20-26 (362).

"Amen, I say to you, you will not be released until you have paid the last penny."

Hearing a who

The prophet Elijah had a lot on his plate. Defending the one true God, battling kings and even other prophets, and going through quite a bit of hardship in the process. And when he went to talk with God on God's own mountain, conditions were not calm. The wind blew strong enough to split rocks. Then an earthquake rolled the ground. Oh, and there was fire, too—did we mention that? But God was not "in" the wind, the quake, or the fire. Rather God was in a "tiny whispering sound." That was what awed Elijah and led him to cover his face. Sometimes the voice of God isn't found in spectacular special effects but in the smallest, quietest way. Can you hear it?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-16; Matthew 5:27-32 (363).

"After the fire was a sound of sheer silence."

Truth or consequences

The taking of an oath has a long history and some curious customs, such as an ancient Jewish practice of placing one's hand under the thigh of the person to whom one swears the oath.

Today you raise your hand or place it on a sacred book. But as Jesus pointed out, no oaths should be necessary. All your words should be trustworthy. Be a person who keeps your word; the confidence, trust, and respect of others will follow. And as Mark Twain pointed out: "Tell the truth and you don't have to remember anything."

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:19-21; Matthew 5:33-37 (364). "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes' and your 'No' mean 'No.'"
